WE ANNOUNCE FOR THIS WEEK

Our Easter Opening

March 18th to 23d.

You are WELCOME!

Exquisite Easter Exhibition of Beautiful Parisian Millinery

The initial showing of the most exquisite creations of the foremost style designers, embodying all that is novel and beautiful. A display that may be at once accepted as being indicative of the correct trend of fashion. The styles are unusually elaborate, trimming being mainly on top.

Flowers are being combined with other blossoms.

Shaped styles are the leading feature and the new drooping effects when properly poised on the head, are charming. Flowers—flowers everywhere and in abundance, combined with handsome wings and long drooping plumes. Narrow front brims are correct with the long sloping backs, and the French modistes are showing a great many long streamers of both velvet and taffeta glaze ribbons. All the new tendencies of Fashion will be embodied in display.

The predominating shades are Copenhagen—a new blue, Miel, a delicious yellow derived from honey, Clair de Lune, a bluish steel gray, the new reds (infernal) Ciel and Sisowath (new browns). This exhibition, lasting throughout the entire week, is very broad in its scope, and can well be termed the fashion event of the season.

SOCIAL LIFE IN DANVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., March 16.—An engagement of much interest throughout the State is that of Miss India Watson to Mr. Frank Terrell, which was announced at an elegant luncheon, given in honor of the young lady, by Mrs. W. B. Hancock, Mrs. Howard Guerrant and Mrs. Eugene Withers, at the residence of the latter, in Holbrook Avenue. Bright-hued flowers and the light from many red-shaded candles contrasted prettily with the subdued tones of old mission furniture. Over the table, which was perfect in its appointments, hung a large heart of crimson. Garlands, from which crimson ribbon extended to each plate, and on pulling the ribbon each guest found in her possession a small crimson heart, on which was written a toast suitable to the occasion. The place-cards were crimson and gold, daintily hand-painted with Cupids. Covers were laid for twelve, around the board being seated Miss India Watson, the guest of honor, Miss Beattie Watson, Miss Mabel Robinson, Miss Gertrude Withers, Miss Annie C. Berkeley, Mrs. James Scates Irvin, Miss Madge Vass, Miss Vawter, of Charlottesville, Va.; Miss Gamble, of Georgia; Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Guerrant, and Mrs. Eugene Withers. Miss Watson has been the recipient of much attention not only in her home town, but at various summer resorts, her dainty little beauty always winning universal admiration. She has a host of friends in Richmond, having frequently visited there.

Mr. Terrell is also well-known in Richmond, and has attended a great many of the germane there. The marriage will take place late in the spring, and the young couple will make their home in Danville.

Social Life at The Mecklenburg

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHASE CITY, VA., March 16.—Bridge whist holds its own within doors as horseback excursions do without, and during the afternoon and evening hours its devotees can be seen enjoying "the rigors of the game." Mrs. J. C. Walton, of the Mecklenburg; Mrs. W. P. Whitaker, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. B. B. Tallaferrero, Mrs. W. M. Tallaferrero, Richmond, and Mr. Robert Strother, Lynchburg, are among the most constant and skillful players.

Mrs. W. T. Hughes, of The Mecklenburg, entertained the Chase City Book Club delightfully on Thursday afternoon, in The Mecklenburg parlors. The color scheme of green and white was brought out in the decorations and menu cards. The subject under discussion by the club, the great musicians, was suggested in the dainty hand-painted score-cards in the form of musical instruments and by the theme of the evening, "A Musical Romance." Miss Nell Martin, of Lynchburg, won the first prize, "The Life of Mozart," by her skill in putting the "Romance" together; the consolation, a miniature aeolian harp, fell to Mrs. Lucius Gregory, of Chase City. Mrs. Hughes was assisted in her role of hostess by her mother, Mrs. M. L. T. Davis, of Norfolk, and Mrs. T. E. Roberts, of Chase City.

WAVERLY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WAVERLY, VA., March 16.—On Friday evening at the usual hour, the Philomathean Club met at the home of Mrs. W. V. Martin, where "Epochs in Virginia History" was discussed. Miss Mamie Holland read a very interesting paper on "The Settlement of Jamestown"; Miss Annie Martin gave a full account of "Colonial Virginia"; Mrs. J. P. West read a well-prepared paper on "Ante-Bellum Virginia." This brought the history of our State up to the Civil War, where Rev. H. E. Rountree took up the discussion at length, and closed with a beautiful tribute to Virginia as she is to-day. Listening to the various papers read and remarks made, one could not help feeling proud of our State, and to be called a Virginian.

The club is not only literary, as suggested by its name, but is musical as well, as was manifested by a duet sung by Mrs. J. P. and Mrs. J. W. West, a piano duet played by Miss Annie Martin and Miss Mamie Holland, and a solo sung by Mr. H. E. Rountree. Refreshments were served at 10:30, and the party sept the rest of the evening, which seemed very short, in social chat around the fireside.

Old-Fashioned Molasses Candy

There is as much difference between good New Orleans Molasses and the ordinary cane juice, which is usually used in making Molasses Candy, as there is between 18-karat gold and brass.

Now, imagine taking the finest molasses—the "18-karat kind"—and the choicest table butter, the purest cane sugar, delicious flavors and nut meats, "fresh from the kernels," and skillfully preparing this into a half dozen different kinds of delicious Home-made Candies! Wouldn't it be great?

We are doing just this thing every day, and we want you to know it. We sell these dainty sweets at forty cents the pound, and they are expensive to make, too, but they are HEALTHFUL.

Suppose they do cost a little more than the common kinds! Isn't the health of your loved ones worth something?

Cures Malaria, Chills and Fever When All Others Fail.

Its Effect is the Same in All Countries.

To the Manufacturers of "ELIXIR BABEK."

Gentlemen: During the summer of 18— I contracted the disease known as malaria. After a year's fruitless treatment by a prominent Washington physician, I was entirely cured by your ELIXIR BABEK.

Upon my arrival in this country I was again stricken with malaria, but this time in a worse form—the tropical malaria. Remembering the merits of your remedy, I immediately sent for more.

Again it proved to me that for malaria it was far superior to any physician's treatment.

ELIXIR BABEK in this country is worth its weight in gold. Respectfully yours, BRASIE OHAGAN.
